Fiction and Non-fiction

2. Some songs, books or films can tell stories that have really happened or tell you about things that are real. These are called non-fiction materials.

Some songs, books or films can tell stories that have never happened and have come from someone's imagination. These are called fiction materials.

With your friends, decide which section you think that these stories titles belong, fiction or non-fiction:

- a) How to Care for you Puppy.
- b) The History of Football.
- c) My First Day at School.
- d) My Trip to Antarctica.
- e) The Talking Dinosaur.
- f) My Trip to Mars.
- g) The Wicked Wizard and his Wicked Spells.
- h) The Mouse who Saved the World.

- Make up some more story titles for your friends and see if they can decide if they are fiction or non-fiction.
- Go to your library and find some fiction and some non-fiction books.
- Share your favourite book with your class. Is it a fiction story?
- Pretend you are Daniel's friend. Write some of your own words to sing in the song. Tell about some of the things you can see in your imagination. Ask your teacher to help you fit them in with the song rhythms. Use the backing track. You could make up a whole new song.
